Free Summer Lunch Program Offered to children in Forest Hill

[Forest Hill, TX-May 17, 2010] In an effort to help families in today's challenging economic times, the City of Forest Hill has once again partnered with The Heloise Munson Foundation to offer a free lunch and afternoon snack to children ages one to eighteen during the summer break.

The program kicks off June 7th and will continue through August 20th, serving lunch weekdays between 11:30 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. A balanced, hot meal, beverage and snack will be provided at the Community Center (6800 Forest Hill Drive), and at Emily Trentman Park (at Wanda Lane and Twin Oaks). All meals will be offered in accordance with federal law and USDA policy. There are no residency restrictions; children from any city are allowed to participate. The program is funded through a grant from the USDA.

"We are proud to again offer this important program to our citizens and those who live in surrounding communities," said Sheyi Ipaye, city manager. "We've been afforded this incredible opportunity to provide a service at no cost to our community, and we hope families will take advantage of it," he added.
