Stephanie Menes, MD, Opens Forest Hill Practice

[Forest Hill, TX – August 17, 2010] Stephanie Menes, M.D., has joined Huguley Medical Associates and has opened an internal medicine practice in Forest Hill. Her office, located at 6619 Forest Hill Drive, will offer primary healthcare, including check-ups, acute care treatment, and chronic disease management for adults.

Before opening her Forest Hill practice, Dr. Menes worked as a hospitalist, providing inpatient care at Huguley Memorial Medical Center and a Mansfield hospital. As a board-certified internist, Dr. Menes specializes in the prevention, diagnosis and treatment of diseases that affect adults, including patients with multiple illnesses at the same time.

Forest Hill Mayor James Gosey said, "The City of Forest Hill welcomes Dr. Menes and her staff to our community. We look forward to working with her and improving the health and well-being of our citizens."

Dr. Menes completed a residency in internal medicine at Meharry Medical College in Nashville, Tennessee. During her residency, she also worked at Nashville Metro General Hospital and Alvin C. York Veterans Medical Center in Murfreesboro, Tennessee. She is a member of the American College of Physicians.

Dr. Menes' and her staff can be reached at 817-563-6985 and is located at 6619 Forest Hill Drive, Suite 30. Dr. Menes welcomes new patients and accepts most insurance plans, including Medicare. She is a member of Huguley Medical Associates, which manages the practices of twenty-two primary care and specialty physicians with offices in Alvarado, Burleson, Crowley, Forest Hill, Grandview, Keene, and on the Huguley campus. Huguley Medical Associates offers practice management services including staffing, billing and collections, technology services, financial management, marketing and other administrative tasks.
